Purposes of Processing and Legal Bases

The user's personal data will be processed for the pursuit of the following purposes and with the legal bases indicated below:

1. the processing is aimed solely at the application and participation in the contest organised by the owner, in the manner specified in the participation rules available at <https://youngmanufacturingleaders.org/wp-content/uploads/YML-Sustainable-Innovation-Constest.pdf>. The legal basis for the purpose indicated is represented by the necessity of the processing for the conclusion and proper execution of the contract to which the data subject is a party and/or for the execution of pre-contractual measures taken at the request of the data subject, as provided for in Article 6 par. 1 letter b) of the GDPR.

Type of data.

The data necessary for the pursuit of the purposes described above will be collected and processed such as:

- personal data,
- company affiliation
- role
- contact data such as e-mail and telephone.

Refusal to provide data

The provision of data is optional, but refusal to provide it may make it impossible to participate in the contest organised by the Owner.

Data source

Data will be collected from the interested party.

Processing methods

In accordance with the provisions of art. 5 of the Regulations, the Personal Data subject to Processing will be:

- (i) processed in a lawful, correct and transparent manner towards the Data Subject;
- (ii) collected and recorded for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes, and subsequently processed in terms compatible with those purposes
- (iii) adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purposes for which they are processed
- (iv) accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date;
- (v) processed in a manner ensuring an adequate level of security;

(vi) kept in a form which permits identification of the data subject for a period of time not exceeding the purposes for which they are processed.

The data will be processed using manual and/or computerised and telematic tools with organisational and processing logics strictly related to the purposes for which they are processed and in any case in such a way as to guarantee the security, integrity and confidentiality of the data in compliance with the organisational, physical and logical measures provided for by the provisions in force.

Scope of data communication

The Processing will be carried out, in part, directly by the Data Controller: the recipients of the Data Subject's Personal Data include authorised persons belonging to the Data Controller's organisation, appropriately trained and made aware of the constraints imposed by EU Regulation 2016/679.

In addition, without prejudice to the communications required by law or the exercise of the right of defence, the personal data subject to processing may be communicated to persons, companies, associations or professional firms that provide services or activities of assistance and advice to the Data Controller, with particular but not exclusive reference to IT, accounting, legal, administrative, tax and financial matters. For the pursuit of the above-mentioned purposes, the data may be communicated to third parties acting as autonomous data controllers or data processors designated by the Data Controller. An updated list of the data processors appointed by the data controller can be provided on request.

Scope of data dissemination

Personal data may be disseminated within the limits and in the manner indicated in the regulations of the contest organised by the owner.

Transfer of data abroad

For the purposes indicated above, personal data will be processed within the European Economic Area (EEA). Should they be transferred to third countries, in the absence of an adequacy decision by the European Commission, the requirements of the applicable legislation on the transfer of personal data to third countries, such as the Standard Contractual Clauses adopted by the European Commission, will still be complied with.

Data Retention.

In general, Personal Data will be kept for the time strictly necessary to pursue the purposes for which they have been collected and processed, including the retention period required by applicable legislation and, in any case, for a maximum period of 10 years from the termination of the contractual relationship in relation to the purposes of fulfilment, except for any need for the data controller to defend its own rights in court. Rights of the data subject.

Pursuant to Articles 15 et seq. of EU Regulation 2016/679, the data subject may, in accordance with the procedures and within the limits provided for by the applicable legislation, exercise the following rights:

- request confirmation of the existence of personal data concerning him/her (right of access);
- know its origin
- receive intelligible communication of such data
- obtain information on the logic, methods and purposes of the processing;
- request the updating, rectification, integration, cancellation, transformation into anonymous form, blocking of data processed in violation of the law, including those no longer necessary to achieve the purposes for which they were collected;
- as well as, more generally, to exercise all the rights recognised to him/her by the laws in force.

The rights may be exercised by sending a request to the data controller at the above-mentioned addresses without any formalities.

Before providing a reply, the data controller may need to identify the data subject by requesting a copy of his/her identity document.

A written reply will be provided without undue delay and, in any case, no later than one month after receipt of the request.

Complaint

If the data subject considers that the processing of his/her personal data violates the provisions of the GDPR, he/she has the right to lodge a complaint with the Italian Data Protection Authority based in Rome, in accordance with Article 77 of the GDPR, as well as to appeal to the judicial authorities.
